(3)
persons who were promoters of the mutinous Petition presented by the London Apprentices with Captaine Musgrave and divers others, who forced the Houses to Vote what they pleased.

V.

That they have countenanced the Cities Declaration against the Army; which was published, and read in divers Churches about the City of London, tending to the raising a new war.

VI.

That they often were at the pretended Committee of the Militia of London, and the Committee of Safety, who levied forces and joyned in countenancing those that levied forces against the King, Parliament and Kingdome.

VII.

That they subscribed severall warrants for the raising of forces, to joyne in the aforesaid Treasonable Designe against the King, Parliament and Kingdome.

VIII.

That severall of them, at severall times
signed
